

ALISON JERRY

DALLAS

TEXAS

Alison Jerry grew up in the Midwest and Upstate NY. At the age of 12 she started winning local Art Awards and received the Art Medal upon graduating High School. By the time she graduated from Syracuse University with a BFA in Surface Design, Illustration and Photography, Alison had started to explore commercial design. Soon after working at Hallmark Cards Inc. as a designer, Alison embarked on a journey into the freelance/ licensing world by setting up an office in NYC for the next 15 yrs. Then Alison's love for painting, photography and textiles kept calling her back. She has traveled across the US, Europe, and Mainland China while capturing images that are intense and full of emotion, which all can be a part of her inspiration. To date, Alison lives in Texas where her love for painting and photography have evolved into new level of successful, creative expression. Alison's work is a unique collection that only she can create as she plans and allows for mistakes. People call Alison's work contemporary mixed with expressive bold or soft color palettes. Today her work has been in Gallery's, Museums, Commercial's and with Major Retailers. Alison continues to win awards for her work while exploring the world of art with a wide variety of imagery and techniques.
