

CHUCK LARIVEY

HENRICO, VIRGINIA

Chuck returned to oil painting on March 16, 2009. His early interest in the Masters is evident by his sensitive approach to light, color and form which has evolved somewhere between classical and impressionism. His paintings are typically large scale with a wide subject range. "I'm a daily painter exploring the merging of light and water on canvas. It's a fascination I'll spend the rest of my time as an artist pursuing and if my painting evokes an emotion, and my experience as an artist is shared, then it becomes worthwhile."