

DEBORAH VELASQUEZ

PLEASANT VALLEY, CONNECTICUT

Deborah Velásquez is a Brooklyn original who now enjoys the creative life in the wooded hills of New England with her husband and two sons. Her inspiration comes from walks on the beaches of Martha's Vineyard, the streets of Paris and New York, the simple beauty of nature found in her back garden, and the primitive innocence of her sons' scribbles. She is an artist-designer and blogger who creates paintings, prints, ceramics, cards, textiles and mobiles. She loves the mix of design, words, art and craft. Deborah's work is modern, sophisticated, graphic and bold with a unique color sense and it reflects her love for the simplicity of line.

In short her work is "Where Art and Beauty Meet Lifestyle"©
