

JADE REYNOLDS

NASHVILLE

TENNESSEE

Born on the East Coast, Jade spent most of her youth in Manhattan and Los Angeles. A self-taught artist, Jade's love of art was born at an early age. After applying her artistic talents to mural work, product design, manufacturing high end hand painted furniture sold world wide and developing children's art for major publishers; Jade continued creating art while expanding her vision and evolved into a successful fine artist and designer. For the past 20 years, she has been working in both watercolor and acrylics. Her work is shown in galleries, private collections and on licensed products. Her work has been featured in Southern Living show homes, HGTV homes, and Parade of Homes designer homes. Jade always keeps a close eye on trends, design and color direction along with pulse of the art world to bring to the market art that will not only please the eye but feed the soul.
