

JENNIFER GOLDBERGER

RICHMOND

VIRGINIA

Jennifer has been an artist for as long as she can remember. She began painting with oils at the age of eleven and has been working in them ever since. In 2001 she graduated Summa Cum Laude from Virginia Commonwealth University where she received numerous awards and a Bachelor's degree in Painting and Printmaking. Professionally she found her niche in 2001, creating decorative art for World Art Group, an art publishing company in Richmond, Virginia. She uses her flexibility of style and technical control of painting and drawing to create art that is diverse yet linked by common themes. The work embodies sophistication of color and design, and an understanding of composition, light, and space. Experimenting with media has been a joy in her career. She has expanded her media library from oil and pencil to include encaustic, watercolor, acrylic, ink, printmaking, and collage. Along with her extensive background in graphic design, she now creates around 600 images per year. Jennifer is inspired by everything that surrounds her and she revels in the ability to create beautiful art as her life and career.
