

SUZANNE BLANCK

GILBERT

ARIZONA

Suzanne Blanck is a talented surface designer and illustrator whose work has been embraced by buyers and customers all over the world. She has worked with and licensed art to well known and “Design-Leader” brands such as Barney’s of New York, Anthropologie, Kate’s Paperie, Target, Ito-ya, and Oopsy-Daisy just to name a few. Her talents have also been used for years to create luxurious products and invitations for Couture Event Planning Agencies around the world. On any given day you will find Suzanne in her studio with a large cup of coffee and a joyful mess of color, paper, and paint all around her. Her style is constantly gaining new insight and sophistication due to her prolific nature as an artist and designer. She often combines her love of cut paper and oil pastels with digitally hand-drawn elements as well as using gouache and graphite! Regardless of her technique, Suzanne’s creative eye has the ability to bring clients products to the next level.
