

TIM O'TOOLE

GLENDALE

ARIZONA

Born in Dayton, Ohio, painter Timothy O'Toole began his enthusiasm for drawing and painting at an early age. He attended Dayton Art Institute and later received a Bachelor of Fine Art degree from the University of Cincinnati. In addition to his time spent in Ohio and Pennsylvania capturing the wonders of nature for his art, Timothy has spent over twenty years in Colorado working on location to hone his skill as a master landscape painter. "When a scene captivates my attention, I paint, spreading the paint over the canvas using brushes, palette knives and my fingers-anything to capture the moment." Timothy's work has been published and collected both nationally and internationally for almost 25 years. He attests that his family and painting are the driving passions of his life.
