

WILLIE GREEN-ALDRIDGE

HOLLY SPRINGS

NORTH CAROLINA

Willie Green-Aldridge's perspective comes from a combination of her experience in interior design and art. She is an award winning, commissioned artist with works appearing in both corporate and residential collections. Her unique and strong sense of color harmonies and spatial relationships allows her work to easily complement any environment. The work is rich with bold uses of color and often richly textured, possessing a distinctive surface employing various techniques and media. "It is through the mixture of colors where my feelings come through," she says. "It is where I celebrate the beauty of life."
